Transforming a wall

Working on a mural for Watsonville Care Centers on Arthur Road this morning are Glafira Castillo, 16, kneeling, Manuel Mendoza, 21, getting equipment together, and Blanca Sanchez, 15, and Lorena Castillo, 19, painting. The crew works with artist Guillermo Aranda, who has designed murals at Watsonville High School and Salud Para La Gente health clinic. The mural will depict a waterfall, faces of elderly people, stars and the moon, superimposed over the outstretched wings of an eagle. Completion is expected May 15.
